

My dear Friends

I am fine here by the grace of God and by your daily prayer and I hope the same with you.

Myself Cynthia Anthony Studying in PUC 1st Sanmarg College Gadag. Recently I finished my mid term exams and I scored well by securing 1st class. And Now I'm preparing for the final examination which starts on 29th March 2022.

My good hobbies are Dancing, Art and listening to music. Recently in our college we gave Farewell to our Seniors and I participated in Dance and I was awarded as Best Dance in the event.

The main intention to write this letter is to thank you for your love and supports towards my education. Because of your support I'm able to continue my studies. I and my parents very grateful for your help.

I and my family remember you in our daily prayers for your good health and happiness. May God shower his blessings upon you and your family.

Thanking you

Yours loving child
Cynthia
